Groups

Sermon Guide

Revelation 17–19:10

- Remember that groups are a place to practice what is preached in community with God and one another.
- Pray together for the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to behold wonderful things (Ps. 119:18) as your group meets with the Lord.
- Ask a few group members to read Revelation 17:1–19:10 out loud; assign sections to different members and remember Revelation 1:3 as you read: Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.
- Which of the wrongs in “Babylon” have entrapped you from time to time? How can we pray for and help you in this good struggle?
- Share with the group how God has enabled you to avoid the snare of “the great prostitute.”
- As we continue in Revelation, share how the fear of evil that is shown can translate into action and hope. What life lessons and practices are becoming part of your life out of engaging this letter together?

Weekly Questions for One Another

- What is God saying to you in this Word, in the sermon, and in your walk with Him this week?
- What is God telling you to do? How can we as a Group be part of giving you courage to obey?
- How can we pray for you? For your neighbors?
