Sermon Guide

Revelation 21–22

- Remember that groups are a place to practice what is preached in community with God and one another.
- Pray together for the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to behold wonderful things (Ps. 119:18) as your group meets with the Lord.
- Invite some group members to read Revelation 21–22 out loud; assign sections to different members and remember Revelation 1:3 as you read: Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.
- What is the significance for our community of the names ascribed to God (21:6), for those who “overcome” and those who do not?
- What implications do the requirements of a citizen of the New Jerusalem have for our life together right now (21:27)?
- Read out loud again 22:7, 12, 20. What is repeated about Christ? How do they sum up the theme of Revelation? What bearing do they have on our daily life together preparing for this reality?

Weekly Questions for One Another

- What is God saying to you in this Word, in the sermon, and in your walk with Him this week?
- What is God telling you to do? How can we as a Group be part of giving you courage to obey?
- How can we pray for you? For your neighbors?
