Neighbor to Nations

In the middle of a global crisis, you may feel like there's little you can do to help, but we can still be the people of God, lights shining in a dark season. Our Sending team wants to come alongside you with suggested ways to love near and far. Here's what you can do this week:

LOCAL

How You Can Pray

- Pray for those in your neighborhood who are struggling due to sickness, loss of a job, or financial stress.
- Pray that God would use you to be a gospel light and witness to your neighborhood.

What to Do

- If you or someone you know in our community is struggling with groceries or supplies, let us know so we can help.
- Stop by a friend's front yard and sing them a song from the sidewalk or deliver them some flowers.
- It's never been easier to share the gospel with others. Check out this simple and helpful guide that walks you through turning everyday conversations into spiritual ones.

GLOBAL

How You Can Pray

- Pray for our Muslim neighbors during Ramadan:
  - Followers of Islam began fasting on Thursday, April 23, from sunrise to sunset and will continue until Saturday, May 23, to try to please Allah and earn their salvation
  - Pray that the Lord would break through and show them that Jesus is the Son of God who came to take away the sins of the world

What to Do

- Looking for something meaningful to do on a Sunday night? We are inviting missionaries from around the world to share stories about what God is doing in their regions. Join us for Storytime with a Missionary on Sunday at 7 p.m.
- Parents, watch this video with your kids, and then click here to learn more about the Hindu religious block. This resource contains activities, recipes, and a coloring page to get your kids involved in praying for the nations.
