BIBLE STORY

The Holy Spirit Helps Peter
Acts 2:37–38

NOTE TO PARENTS

Hi families, SCHOOL IS OUT! Woo hoo!!! Wait a minute. Today still looks a lot like last week...and the week before. Do you remember what it felt like when you were a kid and school ended? I remember being excited and ready to play. Our kids probably are feeling that too, yet their opportunities to play with friends are limited. But they have you. And they still like you! While you may be feeling overwhelmed, suffering from Zoom fatigue, or feeling older than you have ever felt before—you probably would benefit from playing too! I encourage you to take some time this week to remember being a kid on summer break and PLAY with your kids, like a kid. Talk about, or even play, some of your favorite things that you used to do as a kid. Be silly, even if it is not your nature. Laugh until your cheeks hurt. Make funny faces. Use funny voices. See an afternoon as an adventure waiting to happen. It will be great memories for your kids and do you a lot of good too!

Milestones

remembering the work of God

We begin this week by celebrating Memorial Day, which is a day to honor the many men and women who have lost their lives in service to our country so that we can be free. As you begin your summer break, take a moment as a family to remember those who have sacrificed on behalf of our country.

Memory Verse

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
