

CREATE TIME  CAPTURE MOMENTS  AND CELEBRATE MILESTONES  TOGETHER

BIBLE STORY

The Church Begins
Acts 2:41–47

NOTE TO PARENTS

Hi families,
Do you have a family motto or perhaps a family mission statement? In the Wilding home, here's ours: One faithful day at a time. We keep this little phrase posted in our home and say it regularly to one another. During this unique time, our little phrase has become mightier than ever when we say it or read it. It's helping us all remember how God is not asking us for perfection, or to see into the future, or to plan for outcomes we cannot possibly know. Instead, when we hear this phrase, we're able to heed the words of Jesus in Matthew 6:34, "...do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." In other words, be faithful today, and when tomorrow comes, do it again. One faithful day at a time.

Moments

proclaiming the truth as you go

JUSTIFIED Those who love and trust Jesus have been given right standing before God because Jesus took the penalty of sin on Himself on the cross.

SUFFERING Times in our life that are hard, painful, or difficult

GUILT VS SHAME Guilt says "I did something wrong." Shame says, "There's something wrong with me."

Milestones

remembering the work of God

The summer of 2020 will be one like no other. Even though some of the normal routines are resuming and places we visit are slowly opening back up, things are nowhere near normal. Consider how your family might mark memories this summer in fun, creative ways that will allow you to look back and reflect on God's provision and faithfulness. Perhaps a Polaroid or Instax camera to capture moments is a worthwhile investment, or something simple, like notecards and a mason jar on the kitchen table to add written memories.

Memory Verse

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
