BIBLE STORY

God Sends Paul to Antioch
Acts 14

NOTE TO PARENTS

“And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up” (Galatians 6:9). I don’t know about you, but I have needed this reminder. It seems that for every plan I make, another is undone. And while cognitively I understand this is just the state of our world and the name of the game right now is flexibility, everything else in me—the achiever, the go-getter—just wants to execute and complete a well-thought-out plan! So I’m thankful for this reminder from Paul to do good, even when my plans don’t go the way I expect or hope, even when I’m tired of making and breaking good plans. Parents, let’s continue to do good, to not give up, and fully trust that the season of harvest is coming.

Milestones

remembering the work of God

In our first TVC Kids Weekly, we encouraged families to mark significant moments as an ebenezer of God’s faithfulness during this unprecedented time. How are you doing? Have you created a scrapbook or photo album? Or perhaps a family journal where you can record significant memories, prayers, and lessons from the Lord? If you haven’t, it’s not too late to gather items and start now. Perhaps now more than back then, we all could use a reminder that God is faithful.

Memory Verse

The earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof,
the world and those who dwell therein.

PSALM 24:1 (ESV)
