

NAME: _____

The grass withers,
the flower fades,
but the word of our God will stand forever.
Isaiah 40:8

About the Art: The God who has always been has given us His true Word that will always be. He never changes, and His will for our lives will not change either.

WITHERS – dies

FADES – loses strength and health